

Fairs in the “Show-Me” State to Show Off Dorper Sheep in 2011

The 2 largest fairs in the State of Missouri have added Dorper Sheep to their exhibitions in 2011.

The Ozark Empire Fair (Springfield MO) has added Dorper classes to both the Open and Youth Show. Dorpers and White Dorpers will show together in at this event. Arrival date will be July 28 and release will be 4 p.m. July 31. Entries must be received by June 15th, 2011 and more information will be coming on the OEF website which is ozarkempirefair.com or contact Mike, Diane or Jared Frieze 417-742-4228.

Dorper Sheep may also be shown at the 2011 Missouri State Fair in the “All Other Meat Breeds” classes of the Sheep Division. This should allow for an excellent opportunity to show case the Dorper Breed at the premier livestock event in the State of Missouri. The Mid-America Dorper Club will contribute at least $300 in added money to be paid to the top placing Dorper Sheep in the “AOMB” classes.

Dates for the Missouri State Fair Open Sheep Show are August 14 -17. The premium guide will be posted on the MSF website in April and the entries will be accepted beginning May 2nd. If you are planning on camping it is suggested that you get your entries in as early as possible.

3rd Edition Of DORPER JOURNAL To Be Published This Winter

ADSBS members are reminded that the Society will publish the third edition of our biennial yearbook, The Dorper Journal, again this Winter. This popular publication is distributed at every public event where we erect the breed's promotional display, as well as other events. In addition, Ronda Sparks, ADSBS Registrar, mails a copy of The Dorper Journal to anyone who inquires about the breed, and to new members.

There is no better advertising buy to promote your flock than an ad in The Dorper Journal, with its targeted audience and distribution for two years. Start preparing your ad copy, as ad orders must be placed by November 1, 2011, and your finished ad must be provided to ADSBS by December 1, 2011. Special placement ads (inside front cover, inside back cover, back cover and center spread) will be available for reservation on a "first come – first served" basis on May 2, 2011. Call Ronda to reserve those spots! We also encourage members to contact commercial suppliers you buy from to advertise as well. The new edition of The Dorper Journal will be unveiled at the 2012 National Show in Fort Worth, Texas in January, as well as at the American Sheep Industry Convention in January.

Advertising Rates are as follows:

Full Page	$750.00
1/2 Page	$450.00
1/4 Page	$275.00
1/8 Page	$150.00
Special Placement Ads (On first come, first served basis)
2 Page Spread	$1,400.00
Center Spread	$1,500.00
Cover Positions	$1,000.00 (Back Cover, Inside Back, Inside Front)

Prices are for scan ready ads on an electronic file. Electronic files of ad copies can be emailed to Ronda Sparks at ADSBSoffice@centurytel.net or Kathy Lewis at blkcyn@hughes.net. Payment is due at time of ad submission (November 1, 2011). Make payment to: ADSBS-Journal Account, PO Box 259, Hallsville, MO 65255.

We also need good articles for this publication, and photographs of quality Dorpers and White Dorpers in natural settings. We welcome submissions that tell the story of YOUR flock, but reserve the right to select editorial content. Also, if you have stories of Dorper breed successes in the commercial industry, we welcome those as well. All submissions should be sent to Ronda Sparks, ADSBS Registrar, at P.O. Box 259, Hallsville, MO 65255-0259 and clearly marked "DORPER JOURNAL". If you have questions about an ad or editorial idea, contact Kathy Lewis in Bonanza, Oregon at 541-281-0482 or blkcyn@whitedorper.com. If you need an ad designer to help you prepare a camera-ready ad, we recommend Deb Moldenhauer at Insight Design (she designs ADSBS ads) at deb@insightdesignsd.com or by phone at 605-878-1312. Another ad designer familiar with the sheep industry is Dale Smith at royal-s@earthlink.net or phone 419-308-8418, or Kaye Woolam Weaber at Agri-Exposure LLC at kayeweaber@gmail.com or phone 860-716-3626.
